

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

A 30-year creative career professional able to deliver on time and within budget high quality 2D and/or 3D motion graphic animation following existing brand and style guidelines or collaboratively develop new based on current design trends and standards; proficient in Final Cut Pro X, Motion 5 and the MotionVFX MO2 3D rendering engine plugin, Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, Premiere, and After Effects; seeking freelance, temporary or project work.

SAMPLE WORKS

(+/- 2 minutes each)

Cartoon: <https://vimeo.com/310016967> Video Wall: <https://vimeo.com/260440286>
Instruction: <https://vimeo.com/265103912> Time Lapse: <https://vimeo.com/218715989>
MORE: <https://vimeo.com/jwindish>

EXPERIENCE

Georgia College & State University, Milledgeville, GA 2004 to 2018

- Ina Dillard Russell Library, Associate Director for Instructional Technology Support & Operations, 2013 – 2018
Technology functions below plus the development of financial management strategies and strategic goals; developed and implemented policies and procedures both in the finance and general operational realms.
- Ina Dillard Russell Library, Lead Technical Specialist for Instructional Support, 2008 – 2013
Develop and oversee library technology resources including circulating equipment (cameras, projectors, computers, tablets, peripherals); 3D, photo and poster printing; audio, video and listening studios.
- Department of Information Technology, Lead Technical Specialist for Instructional Support, 2004 – 2008
Oversaw initial set-up and management of campus Instructional Technology Center (ITC) included computer classrooms & media lab; supervised staff, developed and taught workshops, and provided hardware & software support for approximately 400 computers, servers and a broad range of interactive media devices.

Mediapolis, Inc., New York, NY – Senior Producer/Project Manager 1999 to 2002

- Senior manager in charge of company owned Web sites, interactive advertising network and promotional and community affiliations; produced twenty websites for clients including the New York Times Co., Sony Music, and Johnson & Johnson.

Larchmont Mamaroneck (NY) Community Television, Inc. – Executive Director 1987 to 1999

- Managed not-for-profit television corporation with six production locations, three studios, portable and post-production equipment, and transmission facilities for three cable television channels. Executive produced, planned, and developed over 1,000 hours of original television programming annually.

Larchmont Mamaroneck (NY) Community Online Services, Inc. – Executive Director 1995 to 1999

- Established a not-for-profit organization to provide digital telecommunications services for three municipal governments and to build a shared fiber institutional network linking government buildings, libraries and schools. Established an early community ISP, operated a community bulletin board service (using TBBS) for residents.

Manhattan Neighborhood Network Board of Directors, Borough President appointee 1992 to 2000

Served as Secretary/Treasurer, oversaw investments, $3 million operating, and $9 million capital budget; Chaired Franchise Committee, negotiated public interest requirements of the NYC/Time Warner Cable Franchise Agreement; Capital Committee, purchased midtown NYC building, designed and constructed state-of-the-art television studios. Marketing Committee: hired polling firm, developed marketing and outreach programs.

New York University, Tisch School of the Arts, Undergraduate Film and Television, Bachelor of Fine Arts, 1987.